Notice.

The East Branch Mattawamkeag Dam Company hereby give notice that they will petition the next Legislature for an amendment to their Charter, and for a license for an increase of tolls on logs passing said dam

ISAAC M. BRAGG.

Bangor, Nov 28th 1873.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Maine, in Legislature assembled, on the first Wednesday of January, A. D. 1874.

The undersigned Petitioners, citizens of the County of Penobscot, in said State, respectfully show that the proprietors of Oldtown Bridge, were incorporated by the Legislature in the year 1827, by the name of the Oldtown Bridge Corporation, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a Toll Bridge across the Penobscot river, at or near Oldtown Village, in Penobscot County, that by an additional act of the Legislature passed March 15th, 1830, a further time of two years was granted to said Proprietors to build and complete said Bridge, that said Proprietors, under said charter, built a toll bridge in accordance with its provisions, and opened the same for passengers and travel in the fall of 1831 and have maintained said bridge and taken toll for travel thereon to the present time, that by an act passed by the Legislature January 29th, 1829, it was enacted, that after the expiration of forty years from the time said Bridge was opened for passengers, said Bridge should revert to the State, And your Petitioners aver that said term of forty years has long since elapsed, and said Bridge of right now belongs to the State. They therefore pray your Honorable body to pass an act or resolve, making said Bridge a free bridge, and authorizing and instructing the Land Agent, or other suitable agent, to take possession of said bridge in behalf of the State, and keep the same in repair, and safe and convenient for public travel. And as in duty bound will ever pray

J. H. HILLIARD, A. G. BEAN, J. C. PEASE, WM. McPHETERS, And one hundred and sixty-five others.

RHEUMATISM NEURALGIA WE CLERGYMEN WERE CURED

of Chronic and Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Kidney, and Nervous Diseases, after years of suffering, by taking Dr. Fitler's Vegetable Rheumatic Syrup—the scientific discovery of J. P. Fitler, M. D., a regular graduate physician, with whom we are personally acquainted, who has for 39 years treated these diseases exclusively with astonishing results. We believe it our christian duty, after deliberation, to conscientiously request sufferers to use it, especially persons in moderate circumstances who cannot afford to waste money and time on worthless mixtures. As clergymen we seriously feel the deep responsibility resting on us to publicly endorse this medicine. But our knowledge and experience of its remarkable merit fully justifies our action. Yours truly, &c., Rev. C. H. Ewing, Media, Penn'a, suffered sixteen years, became hopeless. Rev. Thomas Murphy, D. D., Frankford, Philadelphia. Rev. J. B. Davis, Hightstown, New Jersey. Rev. J. S. Buchanan, Clarence, Iowa. Rev. G. G. Smith, Pittsford, New York. Rev. Joseph Beggs, Falls Church, Philadelphia. Other testimonials from Senators, Governors, Judges, Congressmen, Physicians, &c., forwarded gratis with pamphlet explaining these diseases. One thousand dollars will be presented to any medicine for same diseases showing equal merit under test, or that can produce one-fourth as many living cures. Any person sending by letter a description of affliction will receive without charge (if considered curable) a legally signed guarantee, naming the exact number of bottles warranted to cure, agreeing to refund amount paid in case of its failure to cure. Price per bottle, $1 25; can be bought as used. Afflicted invited to write for medical advice on above diseases only. No charge for reply, which will contain much valuable information acquired by a lifetime practice. No compulsion to buy medicine. Address Dr. Fitler, Philadelphia. Printed explanations of the disease also furnished.

TO DENTISTS AND THOSE REQUIRING THEIR SERVICES

SAMUEL S. WHITE, Manufacturer of the Paris Exhibition Gold Medal Teeth, and Dentists' Materials of every description.

DENTAL DEPOTS:

PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK. TRADE MARK. BOSTON, CHICAGO

THE Artificial Teeth, Dental Instruments, Gold-foil, &c., made by S. S. W., have been proved the best made anywhere, receiving 50 FIRST PREMIUMS—50—in competition with the manufacturers of the whole world, including the GRAND DIPLOMA OF HONOR from the VIENNA EXPOSITION.

An absolute test has demonstrated that the Teeth produced by us are one hundred per cent. stronger than any others made.

Dentists and their patients would do well to keep in mind the axiom, "The best is the cheapest in the long run"; and of no branch of industry is this principle so true as of Artificial Teeth, which, when they break down, as the "cheap teeth" too frequently do, cost a large proportion of the original price to repair.

Goods are frequently sold for ours which are counterfeit. Most of our manufactures are stamped with our Trade Mark Monogram, as shown at the head of this advertisement.

The DENTAL COSMOS, a monthly record of Dental Science, devoted to the promotion of Dentistry, is published by us. Price $2.50 per year. Specimen number gratis.

The Press says that Abraham Pease of Wellington, never knew the convenience of more than one leg. He began life with nothing but his two hands to rely upon for support; and yet with all his disadvantages he acquired a fair education, reared a numerous family, educated his children, purchased, paid for, and carried on a large farm, acquired a competence, preached the gospel 45 years, after the manner which is called "Christian Baptist," and contributed to every good cause.

Robert Merrill of Parsonsfield, met with a very sad accident last Monday, December 1st. He undertook to hook a chain, hanging loose in the yoke of a pair of steers, into the yoke of a pair of oxen, taking the hook, which was very sharp and pointed, in his left hand. The steers started, and the hook caught in the back of the hand, entering it at the roots of the thumb, inflicting a dreadful ragged wound, tearing the hand open from where the hook caught, severing both flesh and cords.

A despatch says that the late "war at Alfred, which terminated by the forcible ejectment of Jailer Bennett, has just leaked out to have been a family affair. Bennett and his family have been writing letters to Wagner, the condemned murderer offering their aid to liberate him, and sympathize with him in his deep affliction, and stating their belief that he was unjustly convicted. The State Inspector of prisons learned of the correspondence and ordered Bennett's immediate removal. Bennett showed fight and wouldn't be put out, but officers went up and by main force got him away. This is one side of the story. The other is that the sheriff wanted to turn the prisoner alone, and to get Bennett's salary in addition to his own. Bennett is the man who mistook the tin pan and broke a stick for Wagner, after his escape.

A NAVAL DISCIPLINE.—A correspondent on board one of our naval vessels gives the following little sketch as illustrative of the discipline in the navy:

Among the characters on board ... officer who is generally known as "the ... orderly." He is a model of official ... A day or two ago the captain who was in his cabin told this individual to ask the officer of the deck if he could see the Martian ... In a few moments the orderly returned and said "Sir the officer of the deck instructs me to say that there has been a thick ... the morning, which rendered it impossible for him to see the monitor, but that the fog has lifted somewhat within the last fifteen minutes, for which time the monitor has been in sight. He will report any further change in the weather that may occur." He said all this with head liberation and particularity of a man reading from memoranda, and as soon as he was done saluted and retired. Promptness fullness and accuracy in answer to inquiries from superiors are required in the navy. The captain tells the orderly to say to Mr. Jones that he wishes to see him. Mr. Jones is a new midshipman, perhaps. "What's the time, sir?" asks the captain when Mr. Jones appears. "I think, sir, it's about —" began the middy. "You don't think, sir!" interrupts the captain, sternly, and Mr. Jones soon learns that he is expected to know positively and exactly all that can be seen or heard while he is on duty. So when the captain sends for him again he does not rush off suddenly, but quietly verifies the time—notes the rate of speed of the ship—takes an inventory of the sails set—notes the number, character and position of the craft in sight, etc., and then goes down armed and equipped for any proper inquiry.

THE BOSTON FIRE did not kill PRESIDENT GRANT.

Neither did it destroy the most appropriate

SEWING MACHINE ATTACHMENT

ever invented. This simple little machine, which is no less than

winds the thread on a bobbin without the use of a person's hands, as even as thread is wound on a spool by the manufacturers. This, as every lady knows, is a very important thing in order to get an even tension, and it is very hard to do without these machines, which not only save an abundance of time, but wind one-third more thread on a bobbin. The Attachment is confined to the machine in the same place as the old one, and the price is within the reach of all. Can be seen in operation at

JOHN E LYNDE, - PROPRIETOR.

FRIDAY, DEC. 12, 1873

THE PRESIDENT'S SALARY

In the House on Wednesday Mr Dawes stated that appropriations for the White House amount to $50,000 per year, outside of the President's salary, and that the salary and perquisites for a single term amount to $310,000 As his colleague, Mr Hoar, remarked, this statement will attract attention throughout the country, but the argument would seem to be against the perquisites rather than against the fixing of a regular salary at an adequate figure If money is to be appropriated to maintain the dignity of the Executive office, we think the people would prefer to have it given in the shape of a stated compensation, instead of fixing a nominal salary to be supplemented according to the humor of Congress. A large portion of these appropriations should undoubtedly be classed with those for the care and improvement of public buildings and grounds, involving expenditures which do not practically diminish the President's ordinary disbursements The elaborate decoration of the interior of the Capitol, the ornamentation of public grounds and the periodical refurnishing of the White House, are matters of taste which do not affect the actual cost of maintaining official position in Washington, as Congressmen could perform their duties just as well in a less elegant building and the President would probably be much less taunted about shabby carpets and ugly furniture in the public reception rooms, than the people whom he is obliged to entertain— There is a reasonable pride felt by the people of a civilized countries in the adornment of buildings devoted to national uses, and the American people desire that the public edifices and their surroundings in Washington shall be creditable to this country As the Executive Mansion is provided by the public, Congress may spend as much or as little as its members choose in embellishments within and around it. If these expenditures have been extravagant they should be cut down to a proper limit and it will be much better to have the actual emoluments of the Executive office clearly defined, than to restore the salary for the future to an amount which is known to be entirely inadequate and thus make the Chief Magistrate dependent upon the pleasure of each succeeding Congress for means to defray the expenses of his position

Our readers will hardly need to be reminded that these perquisites of the White House have originated neither under the present Administration nor under the rule of the present Republican party They were discussed in Congress many years ago, and an inventory of articles furnished for President Adams, which was read by General Butler at the last session, covers nearly two columns of the Globe in fine type, and includes every sort of expenditure from horses coaches and gold mounted harnesses, to napkins mosquito-bars, julep glasses gold dessert spoons and down to a mouse trap Jefferson, having plenty of his own horses, took command on for that item and Madison did the same President Grant is fond of good horses and furnishes his own It is stated by those who have compared the exhibits that Congress furnishes less to the White House now than in the olden time, and the character of these appropriations has much to do with their effect in reinforcing the President's salary A great deal of money might be expended in a way that would afford him no pecuniary assistance, and it would seem better to fix an adequate salary and then bring the judgment of Congress to bear on the perquisites, many of which are devoted quite as much to the gratification of the public as to the benefit of the President

The intelligent contraband who was so useful to the sensational press during the war seems to have dropped his mantle—if he had such a garment—upon the shoulders of the passenger from Havana, who brings startling news two days old from a point whence telegrams are received here almost daily,

The delegation from Louisiana to the National Convention of Colored Men at Washington called on President Grant Wednesday The President informed them, in a brief speech, that a civil rights bill would probably be passed during the present session of Congress and if defeated it would probably be because an extreme measure would be urged by a person claiming to be a particular friend to the colored men

A Boston paper predicts that within two months the consolidated European and North American Railway will be under lease to the Eastern Railroad Company with Mr Charles E Hatch as the general manager for the entire line from Boston to St John

The New York Evening Post speaks of Secretary Fish as follows "Unmoved by the public clamor on this side, and the intense excitement on the other he has permitted himself to be influenced solely by the essential law involved in the question demanding exact justice, indulging in no vaunts or threats and sustaining in the quietest and calmest way the true dignity of the Government. A Secretary of a more excitable temperament more susceptible to popular feeling, might very easily, by a false step or two have involved us in a war with Spain, and such an event with all its unquestionable calamities to the people of both countries would not have been likely to be productive of any single good result which will not now be attained by Mr Fish's skilful management

DECREASE OF RAILROAD RECEIPTS — The November returns published by several of the leading roads now show the following as compared with 1872 Central Pacific, decrease of $5175 Chicago and Northwestern, decrease of $28 080, Milwaukee and St. Paul increase of $68 062, Lake Shore, decrease of $182 865 These roads, however, have all been cutting down expenses, and without a record of operating expenses the net earnings have not, it is presumed, fallen off in as large a proportion as the gross receipts The return from the Union Pacific Road show a good result

In response to a circular sent to each Senator and Representative by Major Poore, Clerk of Printing Records of Congress, requesting a brief biographical sketch for insertion in his forthcoming, Congressional Directory, one modest Representative compiled by furnishing fourteen pages of foolscap, with a full history of his uneventful life, which he was desirous should appear in connection with his name.

THE BOSTON & MAINE The following resolutions, adopted by a nearly unanimous vote at the recent stockholders' meeting of the Boston & Maine R.R. Co., do not sound like "consolidation"

Resolved, That the true policy of the Boston & Maine Road is to keep entirely clear of all entangling alliances with the Eastern Railroad, and that our Directors and attorney, present and prospective, be and hereby are instructed to use their best efforts, and incur all needful expenses to prevent any and all consolidation schemes whatever being carried into effect, whether by legislative enactment, leasing the Eastern Railroad or being leased by them, or in any other form whatsoever.

Resolved, That the cost of the extension of our road into Portland has been more than was anticipated, yet we have unabated confidence that by careful and economical management it will in the future, as in the past, pay its stockholders fair and reasonable dividends with which they will be satisfied

A STORY OF BAZAINE. A French newspaper has started a story to the effect that in 1832 at the Trianon where the trial of Bazaine is now going on, but then occupied by king Louis Phillipe, his son, then eight or ten years of age, fell into a pond and while struggling for life, was rescued by a young sergeant. The sergeant gave his name as Bazaine who entered the army as a private in 1831 The young prince then rescued is now the Duke d'Aumale who as presided over the trial of Bazine, now a Marshal of France It is very probable that the story is not true, but it is, nevertheless, a very pretty one.

"BOSTON TEA PARTY Mr Editor—I am very glad to learn that Bangor takes notice of the anniversary of the throwing overboard of the Tea in Boston harbor one hundred years ago the 16th inst., and that the ladies have taken the matter in hand and propose a Tea Party in connection with their Fair on that evening, at Noromlega Hall. It is hinted that an accomplished young lady of 1773, is to preside with assistants, all in costume, surrounded with emblems and, "things of ancient days, and that the Goodess of Liberty will be there in "bright array," I trust that among the Bangor "hundred orators" a few short telling speeches may be had, to post up "Young America" on this important and interesting event which did so much to precipitate the American Revolution and end the rule of Great Britain in the United States,—not forgetting those noble men John Hancock and Samuel Adams, for whose heads the English offered a reward The scenes and events of those days which tried men's souls should be kept bright in the memory of all—sacred to patriotism and love of country Let old and young call on the ladies on this festive occasion and contribute their mite to swell up the proceeds which will go for a beautiful charity

THE REACTION IN CUBA The moderation of feeling among the Spaniards in Cuba is indicated by the change of tone in the local organs on the subject of the Virginius Protocol The Voz de Cuba now treats the question as follows

There is a great difference between the Virginius case and the reasons causing war with England in 1812 The Virginius was known as a hostile craft In hostile destruction of the blockade runner Fanny, by the Montgomery near Havana as a similar case, justifying the chase and detention of the Virginius on the high seas It believes the arrangement of the treaty was due to the supposition of Cassalar that the capture was illegal Had Cas elar waited and known the proofs of its legality, the treaty would have been different It further says We have discussed the question sufficiently for our readers to have formed judgment of what would happen if we should use measures to impede the carrying out of the agreement which is for Spain an unavoidable obligation receiving more strength because Castelar consulted foreign powers When the case is fully investigated all parties will be astonished not about what was done with the Virginius and her crew, but at the innocently able vein of reflection with which the Madrid Government accepted the capture as illegal

The same journal refers to the attempt to make Spaniards oppose the treaty and thus become rebels to Spain, and continues "We will demonstrate to our enemies that the insubordination of which we are accused and on which they found their hopes, does not exist that the report that we are ungovernable is a calumny and that the traditional respect for Spanish authority still exists

SENATOR MORRILL'S FINANCIAL BILL. The bill of Senator Morrill of Vermont, offered in the Senate on Tuesday, for the resumption of specie payments and for free banking, directs the Secretary of the Treasury to issue in return for deposits of United States bonds to the amount of fifty dollars or upward, $100,000 000 of loan certificates payable in four years after date and bearing interest at the rate of three and sixty five one hundredths (3 65 100) per cent per annum All National banks mentioned in section 31 of the National Currency Act are authorized to hold one half of their reserve in these certificates and the other half in United States notes or gold All other National banks may hold any part of their reserve in these certificates United States notes or gold, and any deposit available for redemption of circulating notes may be counted as part of the reserve of an association organized in any of the cities named in the currency act to which deposits may be due, provided no interest be paid or received therefor and all United States notes so received shall be cancelled

The Secretary of the Treasury is directed at any time after the 1st of October, 1874 to issue new six per cent. gold bonds to the amount of $200 000 000 with the proceeds of which when sold at par for gold coin he shall, on and after January 1, 1879 redeem, in coin such United States notes not bearing interest payable to bearer as may be presented in sums of not less than $100 at the Treasury in Washington, or at the Sub-Treasury in New York and all notes so redeemed may be re issued at the discretion of the Secretary of Treasury in payment of any dues of the United States except United States bonds and interest on the public debt Finally the bill proposes to repeal all limitations on the amount of national bank currently except the restriction that the amount of circulation issued to any national bank shall not exceed ninety per cent of the bonds deposited as security for or of the amount of its paid in capital stock

On taking the chair Mr Carpenter returned thanks The President and House were notified of the election of Mr Carpenter.

A number of petitions asking the appointment of a commission to regulate the traffic [illegible] were presented and referred to the Finance Committee

Mr Sumner called up the bill introduced by him at the first day of the session, for a substitute of coin bond for legal tender notes [illegible] in the Senate in favor thereof [illegible] was for specie payment at the [illegible] and would support any measure [illegible] He thought our currency [illegible] The only remedy is to make it [illegible] that it may be aided by the [illegible] of the world He would make our [illegible] as good as gold and the gold of the [illegible] come to our assistance. [illegible] a return to business, contraction was [illegible] remedy The present disordered [illegible] owed its origin to Congress The [illegible] of the war has ceased now and Congress [illegible] improve our financial condition The bill was then referred to the Finance Committee

Mr Anthony of R I, moved that when the Senate adjourned to-day, it be to meet on Monday Adopted

HOUSE

A number of bills and resolutions were introduced, including the following

Mr Beck of Ky offered a resolution directing the Postmaster General to report the number of employes of all grades required for postal saving institutions, as recommended in his report, also like information as to postal telegraph system Adopted.

Mr Hoar of Mass, from the Committee on Education reported a bill to establish an educational fund and apply the proceeds of [illegible] public lands to the education of the people The bill went over until Tuesday [illegible] the House resumed the consideration of the bill in relation to salaries

Mr Poland of Vt spoke in support of the amendment he offered some days since, contending that the public demanded that all the benefits derived from the increase of salary and back pay should be wiped out. That, and that alone would satisfy the public demand. Mr Poland continued, saying he could preserve habits of simplicity in Washington which he practiced while in office in Vermont Five thousand dollars was ample compensation for his service and furnished him with means to live as he wished The retroactive feature of the increase of salary especially excited public condemnation, and the press and those who took back pay were [illegible] which was not very palatable to him, though he did not propose to be influenced by any threat of that sort, therefore he had taken the back pay and still retained it. Other members had returned the back pay and those who took it as they did so merely to curry favor. After communing with himself whether to be called a thief or hypocrite by the press, he chose to retain the money received under the law and make an effort to have the law so changed that he might be allowed to return it to the Treasury without being subjected to either charge

A H Stephens of Georgia said he was glad the increased salary bill was a measure which neither political party was responsible [illegible] Every Congress has under the Constitution a right to fix its salary and its increase was necessarily retroactive and the brightest [illegible] in American history had subjected [illegible] to be denounced as "salary grabbers and thieves." If it is wrong for members [illegible] what is allowed, where were [illegible] a rule of right and wrong. He [illegible] opinion now as he held four [illegible] ago In a speech then made he said that the salaries of Representatives were [illegible], Senators $15,000, Supreme Court Justices $20,000, Associate Justices [illegible] and President $100,000 it would be [illegible] for the country He should not vote [illegible] but believed the most unwise act [illegible] of the last Congress was the abolition of the franking privilege

[illegible] replied to Stephens and in the course of his remarks said when public opinion holds that the pay which Congress voted [illegible] too high it is indelicate to resist that public opinion. He believed if there was an equalization of the total payments under the old law it would satisfy all reasonable demands of public

[illegible] reviewed past legislation on the subject and opposed any reduction under [illegible] as not more than enough to maintain [illegible] and family

[illegible] thought the true measure was that [illegible] would enable a member to support himself plainly and yet not be an inducement to seek office for pay. Any increase [illegible] should be confined to future Congresses

[illegible] favored substitute of minority report [illegible] considered majority report tended [illegible] the personal government which [illegible] past four years has been dangerously [illegible]

After some further remarks by Crocker, [illegible] and Lawrence, Hale of Me moved [illegible] previous question on a third reading of [illegible] The vote was taken by tellers and [illegible] yeas 100, nays 145 So the House refused to second the previous question

FROM BOSTON.

THE DOMESTIC TRAGEDY—DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

BOSTON, Dec 11. David Kimball of No 10 [illegible] st, Charlestown strangled his wife, [illegible] his step daughter's throat and committed suicide this morning. Domestic trouble not explained, was the cause. Kimball was fifty years old and had been married two years Miranda Wells, his step daughter, was 17 and the murdered wife was about forty years of age.

LATER—INSANITY IN THE FAMILY

Very few facts can be gathered about the terrible tragedy Kimball was a blacksmith, employed at the Navy Yard and kept a few boarders. He had the reputation of being an industrious and sober man His family consisted of his wife Caroline, a step-daughter and one or two domestics. A brother of Kimball committed suicide some years ago, and insanity is said to be in the family

PROF. AGASSIZ.

The physicians attendant upon Prof Agassiz reported last evening a change for the worse and that an attack of paralysis was imminent

FEARS OF THE WORST.

The condition of Prof. Louis Agassiz had not improved up to this afternoon and there is reason to fear that he will not recover. His residence is besieged by anxious friends and acquaintances. There is a bulletin upon the door upon which is written, "About the same as last night," and inquirers have to be satisfied with that statement. Deep anxiety and unusual sorrow at the announcement of his dangerous condition is manifested. Geo S Hilliard is improving in health.

HELD FOR TRIAL.

Thos. and Martin Naylor, Timothy Hanagan, Martin and Jas. Sheery were held to bail in $2000 each to-day to answer to the charge of homicide in causing the death of Patrick Gaffey, who died in the hospital from a severe beating he received on Craigie bridge Saturday night last.

KILLED.

Thos. O'Brien, aged 45, was killed to-day by falling from a building on Swett street wharf.

STALE REPORTS FROM HAVANA!

Blowing than War-bubbles.

THE TRIUMPH OF DIPLOMACY—THE SPANISH REPUBLIC

NEW YORK, Dec 11 A Washington despatch says there is in Administration circles a smothered exultation over the reputed triumph of modern diplomacy. A prominent advocate of the Administration said last night that if the Castelar Government can survive under the exactions we have put upon it then Republican government will be triumphant in Spain for many years.

THE SALUTE TO THE FLAG.

A consultation of naval officers, Secretary Robeson and the Chiefs of Bureaus, was held yesterday, during which the details and etiquette of the salute to the flag were arranged so far as they could be at present.

HEARSAY REPORTS

Passengers who arrived here on the steamship Moro Castle Monday confirm the statements in reference to the readiness of the Volunteers to go to war and their determination not to give up the Virginius

A NEW YORKER'S STORY

A despatch from Key West says that a resident of New York has just arrived from Havana and says that the fortification in the harbor are undergoing repair. There is no cessation during the night or on Sundays—Volunteers are drilled every evening The Virginius is fitted out as a national gunboat, under the command of the Lieutenant who first boarded her from the Tornado, and is fully manned and equipped In the Arsenal the Volunteers openly say that when she leaves, every American in Cuba goes in the air. The officers said to this informant when the latter left the wharf "Tell the Americans that we prefer to settle this matter with carbines" Many Americans were preparing to leave

was granted an interview with the prisoners but was only allowed to see those claiming American citizenship and was not allowed to talk with them

THE MURDER OF IDA VAIL

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 The trial of Mrs Marcella Metzlor, (clairvoyant) indicted with Dr Comins of New York and E K Kimball of Newark, for the murder of Ida W. Vail by abortion was concluded in Jersey City to day, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty

WORKINGMEN'S CONVENTION.

A meeting of workingmen was held in Cooper Institute to-night which was crowded to overflowing Statistics showing the numbers out of work were read The President of the Commissioners of Charity announced the funds for the relief of the poor expended and the Ways and Means Committee reported a measure to abolish the contract system; the reduction of all salaries to $3,000, etc.

A PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTION

were read which announced that they wish to avoid violence and injustice, and only demand the necessaries of life as law-abiding citizens "whose right is to demand these of the Government which they have supported," and that they will supply themselves with proper shelter and the necessaries of life, sending the bills to the City Treasury until such time as they obtain work and pay, which are demanded. After several speeches the meeting adjourned

WASHINGTON

REPETITION OF THE CHARGES AGAINST GEN. HOWARD—ALLEGED INFORMALITY OF ACCOUNTS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. A Washington special to the Tribune says that the Secretary of War has sent a letter to the House making direct charges of fraud and malfeasance in office against Brig Gen O O Howard in connection with his management of the Freedmen's Bureau This letter is accompanied by evidence from the records and accounts of the late Bureau The Secretary says in this letter that the late Commissioner Gen Howard, has been promptly informed of the absence of important records and of apparent exhibits against him, with a view to his offering explanations and supplying the missing records. How far he has done this will appear by the correspondence printed In the reports in one item stated at $121,000 not accounted for.

ACCOUNTS MISSING

It will be seen that the accounts cannot be produced and no attempt has been made to prove what has become of the money Accounts covering the amount in part are alleged to have existed, but the Disbursing Officer, George W Balloch has stated that as they were not considered of much importance they were not kept in cases with the other accounts. The said accounts have disappeared and it seems that neither the late Commissioner nor the late Disbursing Officer can account for their disappearance. This item is known as the retained bounty fund

OVER $200,000 UNACCOUNTED FOR.

As to the misapplication of the public funds the records are in the evidence and these irregular ties and violations of the law seemingly have had much to do with the confusion of the records, their defective condition and almost the entire suspension of work by the late Bureau The responsibility and accountability attaching to the late Commissioner so far as now developed amounts to upwards of $278,373.

EFFECTS OF CAPT. BRIGGS OF THE MARY CELESTE RECEIVED AT N. Y

WASHINGTON, Dec 11. The Treasury Department is advised that the Collector of Customs at New York received from Gibraltar sixteen packages containing the effects of B. S. Briggs, master of the missing brig Mary Celeste and his wife and child. The vessel was found derelict on the high seas uninjured and with her effects all on board apparently undisturbed on her voyage from New York to Genoa, the master his wife and child and the crew all having misteriously disappeared leaving no trace. They were never heard from though every effort was made by the Government to ascertain their fate.

FAVORABLE TO WILLIAMS FOR CHIEF JUSTICE.

At the next executive session the Senate Committee on judiciary will make a favorable report on the nomination of George H Williams for Chief Justice.

SOUTHERN CLAIMS.

It appears from the report of the Southern Claims Commission that the gross amount of claims filed is $60,000,000 and the aggregate amount passed on $10,000,000, there remaining 17,000 claims amounting to $50,000,000 to be adjudicated.

REPRESENTATIVES' SALARIES

The indications are that the House will pass a bill fixing the salary of members at about $6000 per year with an allowance of actual travelling expenses.

FROM CHICAGO.

MR. CHENEY'S BISHOPRIC.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11. Application was made yesterday to Judge Farwell of the Circuit Court for an injunction restaining Rev. Charles E. Cheney lately appointed itinerant Bishop for the West by the Reformed Episcopal Church, from further exercising powers as a minister of the Episcopal church. The application is made on behalf of several members of Dr. Cheney's Church who have opposed his course for some time past.

VIRGINIA.

BRUTALITY ON SHIP-BOARD.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 11. A sailor named Seth Hollingsworth, who shipped on the British bark Magdala as a seaman at Liverpool for this city, was inhumanly treated on the passage. Capt. Fleming was found brutally treating Hollingsworth at City Point by Capt. Post of the steamer Sylvester, who interposed. He was brought to this city in a dying condition where he received proper treatment. Capt. Fleming was arrested and the British Consul here is taking active measures in behalf of Hollingsworth.

PENNSYLVANIA.

THE PITTSBURG FRAUDS.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 11. John Ross, late Secretary of the Water Commission, through whom half a million dollars in bonds, were it is alleged, hypothecated in Philadelphia to bolster up a failing bank here, was before the Finance Committee yesterday, but refused to testify and is under arrest for contempt. Investigation is gradually developing the circumstances of the affair and will probably implicate a number of parties outside of the city officers

COMMENTS ON BAZAINE'S SENTENCE

LONDON, Dec 11 The Times says that Bazaine was justly convicted. The Telegraph considers him a sacrifice to national vanity. The News hopes that as the evidence is so conflicting the sentence will be commuted to perpetual exile or imprisonment.

LONDON STILL SHROUDED IN FOG.

The dense fog which set in on Tuesday last continued this morning, This is almost unprecedented. The condition of the atmosphere over this city is having a serious effect on business. Navigation in the river is very dangerous and no vessels have arrived for two days, the captains fearing to move during the fog lest they should come in collision with other crafts For the same reason the cattle show at Agricultural Hall is a failure. Some of the beasts are perishing and the owners of many others on exhibition have withdrawn them

FIFTY MILES OF FOG.

The fog covers an area of about fifty miles square, of which London is the centre. Elsewhere throughout the country there was a hard frost last night.

LECTURES IN WINTERPORT. Our correspondent writes that the course of lectures in Winterport opened on Tuesday evening with flattering prospects. The lecturer, Rev. J. C. Knowles, of Rockland, although suffering with a severe cold, held the large audience in wrapt attention for nearly two hours. His subject, "Manhood of the Race found in Yankeedom," afforded him a large and fertile field for oratorical display and solid instruction, both of which he faithfully improved to the evident satisfaction of the audience. The entertainment closed with music by Sisby, Bolton, Haley and Rich. The next lecture will be given on the 15th inst. by Campmeeting John" Allen, subject, "Reminiscences"

FIRES IN DANFORTH. Our correspondent writes that about 12 o'clock Wednesday night the new three story store of I Foss & Co, at Danforth, was destroyed by fire, together with most of its contents. The loss will probably amount to about $5,000, on which there is a small insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning a small barn owned by James Cronin and situated about a half mile from the Danforth station, was totally consumed, with a quantity of hay, two cows, a hog and a lot of farming tools The loss is heavy for Mr Cronin, who had no insurance, we learn.

SALMON BREEDING AT BUCKSPORT. The remarkable success in hatching salmon attained by Mr C. G. Atkins, last year, is well known, but it promises to be excelled by this year's operations. Mr. Atkins has put in the pond connected with the hatching establishment about the same number (600) of fish, and has taken out the same number (400) each year. He would have taken out more this year but for the premature cold and ice Last year he obtained 1,500,000 eggs, this year he has taken 2,500,000, but the breeding will probably be delayed by the early cooling, and the extremely low temperature of the water. He has 3,000 young California salmon that are doing well. These are all he saved from the 50,000 sent, as by an oversight the eggs for Mr A. were so long delayed in transit that most of them were spoiled

WEST BANGOR SABBATH SCHOOL Mr. Editor —If to strive for the redress of grievance, and the peaceful solution of difficulties by petition, or otherwise, to the proper authorities, can be condemned, then the West Bangor Sabbath school is indeed guilty The case would probably long ago have been adjusted had not the Mayor set aside the authority of the School Committee—thus giving aid and comfort to the opposition—since which time the case had developed an amount of red tape which is simply astonishing The Sabbath school can no more be held responsible for the affray of Sabbath evening, than can the Christian church for the aggression which led to it The question of the ownership of the lamps and the circumstances of the affray, will no doubt be hereafter developed, and the community may perhaps reserve their judgment until that time With regard to the school, it has been established many years, has an average attendance of 62 members, and has resisted the most persistent and determined efforts to break it up while for its quiet and good order, many in the community, besides its regular teachers, can testify.

A FRIEND TO THE SCHOOL

THE ENTERTAINMENT LAST EVENING, in City Hall, given by the Young Ladies' Aid Society for the benefit of the poor and needy of this city, was largely attended, the hall being filled in spite of the bad weather. A charming representation, in tableaux vivants, of Jean Ingelow's "Songs of Seven" opened the entertainment, and Childhood,' "Romance,' "Love,' 'Maternity," "Widowhood' "Giving in Marriage' and 'Longing for Home,' each formed the subject of a picture very appropriately set, while the poems were recited with much feeling and expression by Miss Wright and Miss Garland Jungman's favorite composition, Harp sounds," arranged as a duett for harp and violin, was played by Miss Shaw and Mr. Andrews with fine taste, and was followed by a song, Hang up the baby's stocking,' very prettily sung by Tina Farrar A piano duett, the overture to 'Poet and Peasant,' was skilfully played by Miss Seavey and Miss Lincoln, and the curtain rose on a dialogue arranged from Miss Alcott's "Little Women" —where the young husband (Mr Webb) brings a friend (Mr Farrington) home to dinner on the day his wife (Miss Wright) assisted by her maid of all-work (Miss Garland) is making, or rather trying to make, currant jelly. The ladies and gentlemen named performed their parts in capital style, bringing out all the fun (and there is "lots") in the piece, and from the time the "family jars" were ordered, to the reconciliation on which the curtain fell, the audience were convulsed with laughter The entertainment closed with Strauss' "Morgenblatter waltzes," played by Mrs. Davenport and Miss Merrill on the piano, and Mr. Davenport on the cabinet organ,—a very effective arrangement, which displayed all the beauties of the composition.

A BRACE OF WATCH THIEVES CAUGHT. Our readers will remember that we mentioned several weeks ago, that a young lady crossing from Mason's corner to Wheelwright, Clark & Co s, was followed by a fellow who stepped upon her dress, and as her watch dropped from under her belt without her knowledge, he picked it up and made off with it. He was seen by a gentleman in Henderson's barber shop, who ran out to stop him, but he had disappeared before the gentleman got into the square An accurate description of the fellow was obtained, however, and given to the police, who have ever since kept on the lookout for him On Wednesday, the City Marshal hearing that a man answering to the description was at work in the woods at Orrington, went for him and brought him to this city late in the evening. The arrested man's name is Edward Enno, and he acknowledges picking up the watch, but says he tried in vain to find the owner He was taken before the Police Court yesterday, and told his story, but the Judge evidently thought it a strange way to seek an owner for the watch by seizing it and running off. The rest of the story may be found in our court record elsewhere.

On Monday night the house of Mr. G W. Mansur, on Pine st., was entered by a burglar, who went to Mr. Mansur's sleeping room and taking a watch from his vest pocket made his escape, fortunately missing the sum of $200 which was in another of Mr. M.'s pockets. No clue to the identity of the burglar could be obtained until the matter came out in a singular manner. One Daniel McCluskey was reported to have stolen property in his possession, and was arrested early yesterday morning by officers Frank Pratt and Nickerson, at the gas works, where he had been loafing around for several nights past. Before he was locked up, he was searched, and among other things a watch was found on him. When officer John Pratt came down, he happened to look at the watch and at once found it was exactly like the one stolen from Mr. Mansur. That gentleman identified it at sight, and—"the rest of this thrilling story will be found" in our Police Court report.

BANGOR POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUDGE GOODENOW.

Thursday, Dec. 11th. State vs. Daniel McCluskey; entering the house of Mr. G. W. Mansur, on Pine street, in the night, and stealing Mr. Mansur's watch; ordered to furnish bonds in the sum of $3,000 for his appearance at the next criminal term of the S. J. Court, and being unable to procure sureties, was sent to jail.

State vs. Edward Enno; larceny of a watch he saw dropped in the street by a young lady some weeks since; ordered to furnish bonds in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next criminal term of the S. J. Court, and failing to find sureties, committed to jail.

THE LYNN MEDICAL INQUIRY The investigation at Lynn, Mass, into the cause which led to the death of Mrs Homan, who died under the influence of ether a few days since while an ovarian tumor was being removed, is assuming a very interesting aspect At the Coroner's investigation Wednesday, a sister of the deceased testified that the [illegible] was administered contrary to the lady's wishes and that she was forced into its reception by the physicians It was also asserted that the patient was alive an hour after the physicians had pronounced her dead It is not improbable that criminal prosecutions will result from the inquiry

Once more I [illegible] beneath this spreading beech,
Where [illegible] dreaming, loving, we have lain
[illegible] a happy day.
Now thou art gone beyond thought's utmost reach,
Beyond the joy we knew, the love, the pain,
Out on the dark way.

The problem is resolved for thee, but I,
[illegible] questioning, despairing, still remain,
And nothing thou wilt say
[illegible] so weak thou dost not heed my cry?
Is memory so vanishing, so vain,
That death wipes all away?

[illegible] cruel, wilt thou ne'er be told?
[illegible] torturing Nature, that was once a bliss,
Vouchsafed in love to me,
Why hast thou kept those perished joys of old,
The hours and days of vanished happiness
To sting me with them thus?

[illegible] me forget? oh, blind those eyes that look
[illegible] backward to the happy past,
Behind her grave that lies;
Oh, hold not up that sad pathetic book
[illegible] records! In that grave be cast
[illegible] memories.

[illegible] me forget? Ah! how can I forget
[illegible] what were life without the tender pain
So deep, and oh, so sad!
[illegible] these sorrowing eyes be wet
[illegible] again
With heartless smiles be glad!

Prospectus for 1874,
Seventh Year
The Aldine,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then there are the chromos, besides.

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The wood-cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thomas Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains, New Hampshire, the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12x16) and appearance exact facsimiles of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its success is fully established by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20th, 1873.

MESSRS. JAMES SUTTON & CO.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
Signed, THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this, they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14x20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free!

For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & CO.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Third Session of the Forty-second Congress.

Convention between the United States of America and Denmark. Naturalization. Concluded July 20, 1872, Ratified January 22, 1873, Ratifications exchanged March 14, 1873, Proclaimed April 15, 1873.

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a convention between the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark, relative to the naturalization of citizens and subjects of the two countries, was concluded and signed at Copenhagen by their respective plenipotentiaries on the twentieth day of July, 1872, the original of which convention being in the English and Danish languages, is word for word as follows

The United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark being desirous to regulate the citizenship of the citizens of the United States of America who have emigrated, or who may emigrate, from the United States of America to the Kingdom of Denmark, and of Danish subjects who have emigrated or who may emigrate, from the Kingdom of Denmark to the United States of America, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose and have named as their plenipotentiaries, that is to say, the President of the United States of America, Michael J. Cramer, minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and His Majesty the King of Denmark Otto Ditley Baron Rosenorn Lehn commander of Danebrog and Danebrogsmand chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, &c., &c., &c.

Who after having communicated to each other their respective full powers found to be in good and due form, having agreed upon and concluded the following articles, to wit.

ARTICLE I.

Citizens of the United States of America who have become, or shall become, and are, naturalized, according to law, within the Kingdom of Denmark as Danish subjects, shall be held by the United States of America to be in all respects and for all purposes Danish subjects, and shall be treated as such by the United States of America.

In like manner, Danish subjects who have become or shall become, and are naturalized, according to law, within the United States of America as citizens thereof shall be held by the Kingdom of Denmark to be in all respects and for all purposes as citizens of the United States of America, and shall be treated as such by the Kingdom of Denmark.

ARTICLE II.

If any such citizen of the United States as aforesaid naturalized within the Kingdom of Denmark as a Danish subject, should renew his residence in the United States, the United States government may, on his application, and on such conditions as that government may see fit to impose, readmit him to the character and privileges of a citizen of the United States, and the Danish government shall not, in that case, claim him as a Danish subject on account of his former naturalization.

In like manner, if any such Danish subject, as aforesaid, naturalized within the United States as a citizen thereof, should renew his residence within the Kingdom of Denmark, His Majesty's government may on his application, and on such conditions as that government may think fit to impose, readmit him to the character and privileges of a Danish subject, and the United States government shall not in that case, claim him as a citizen of the United States on account of his former naturalization.

ARTICLE III

If, however, a citizen of the United States, naturalized in Denmark, shall renew his residence in the former country without the intent to return to that in which he was naturalized, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization.

In like manner, if a Dane, naturalized in the United States shall renew his residence in Denmark without the intent to return to the former country, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization in the United States.

The intent not to return may be held to exist when the person naturalized in the one country shall reside more than two years in the other country.

ARTICLE IV.

The present convention shall go into effect immediately on or after the exchange of the ratifications and shall continue in force for ten years. If neither party shall have given to the other six months' previous notice of its intention then to terminate the same, it shall further remain in force until the end of twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of such intention.

ARTICLE V.

The present convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and by His Majesty the King of Denmark, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Copenhagen as soon as may be, within eight months from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the same and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at Copenhagen the twentieth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two

MICHAEL J. CRAMER
O. D. ROSENORN-LEHN.

And whereas the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications were exchanged at Copenhagen, on the 14th day of March 1873, by Michael J. Cramer, minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and Otto Ditley Rosenorn-Lehn, Commander of Danebrog and Danebrogsmand, chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, &c., &c., on the part of their respective governments.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States of America have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and citizens thereof.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this fifteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-seventh.

TREATY.

Agreement between the United States and Spain, for the Settlement of certain Claims of Citizens of the United States, made by Daniel E. Sickles, Esq., Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States at Madrid, and His Excellency Senor Don Cristino Martos, Minister of State of Spain. Concluded February 12, 1871.

Memorandum of an arbitration for the settlement of the claims of citizens of the United States, or of their heirs, against the government of Spain for wrongs and injuries committed against their persons and property, or against the persons and property of citizens of whom the said heirs are the legal representatives, by the authorities of Spain, in the island of Cuba, or within the maritime jurisdiction thereof since the commencement of the present insurrection.

1. It is agreed that all such claims shall be submitted to arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Secretary of State of the United States, another by the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Spain at Washington, and these two to name an umpire who shall decide all questions upon which they shall be unable to agree, and in case the place of either arbitrator or of the umpire shall from any cause become vacant, such vacancy shall be filled forthwith in the manner herein provided for the original appointment.

2. The arbitrators and umpire so named shall meet at Washington within one month from the date of their appointment, and shall, before proceeding to business, make and subscribe a solemn declaration that they will impartially hear and determine, to the best of their judgment, and according to public law and the treaties in force between the two countries and these present stipulations, all such claims as shall, in conformity with this agreement, be laid before them on the part of the government of the United States, and such declaration shall be entered upon the record of their proceedings.

3. Each government may name an advocate to appear before the arbitrators or the umpire to represent the interests of parties respectively.

4. The arbitrators shall have full power subject to these stipulations, and it shall be their duty, before proceeding with the hearing and decision of any case, to make and publish convenient rules prescribing the time and manner of the presentation of claims and of the proof thereof, and any disagreement with reference to the said rules of proceeding shall be decided by the umpire. It is understood that a reasonable period shall be allowed for the presentation of the proofs, that all claims, and the testimony in favor of them shall be presented only through the government of the United States, that the award made in each case shall be in writing, and if indemnity be given the sum to be paid shall be expressed in the gold coin of the United States.

5. The arbitrators shall have jurisdiction of all claims presented to them by the government of the United States for injuries done to citizens of the United States by the authorities of Spain in Cuba since the first day of October, 1868. Adjudications of the tribunals in Cuba concerning citizens of the United States, made in the absence of the parties interested, or in violation of international law or of the guarantees and forms provided for in the treaty of October 27, 1795, between the United States and Spain, may be reviewed by the arbitrators, who shall make such award in any such case as they shall deem just. No judgment of a Spanish tribunal, disallowing the affirmation of a party that he is a citizen of the United States, shall prevent the arbitrators from hearing a reclamation presented in behalf of said party by the United States government, nevertheless in any case heard by the arbitrators the Spanish Government may traverse the allegation of American citizenship, and thereupon competent and sufficient proof thereof will be required. [illegible] the quality of American citizens in the claimants they will acquire the rights accorded to them by the present stipulations as such citizens. And it is further agreed that the arbitrators shall not have jurisdiction of any reclamation made in behalf of a native born Spanish subject, naturalized in the United States, if it shall appear that the same subject may be declared, by a competent tribunal in Cuba, and the claimant, having appeared in the tribunal, either in person or by his duly appointed attorney, and being required by the laws of Spain to make a declaration of his nationality, failed to declare that he was a citizen of the United States, in which case he shall be held for the purposes of this arbitration to have declined and renounced his allegiance to the United States. And it is further agreed that the arbitrators shall not have jurisdiction of any demands growing out of contracts.

6. The expenses of the arbitration will be defrayed by a percentage to be added to the amount awarded. The compensation of the arbitrators and umpire shall not exceed three thousand dollars each, the same allowance shall be made to each of the two advocates representing respectively the two governments, and the arbitrators may employ a secretary at a compensation not exceeding five dollars a day for every day actually and necessarily given to the business of the arbitration.

7. The [illegible] governments [illegible] the awards made in the several cases submitted to the said arbitration as final and conclusive, and will give full effect to the same in good faith and as soon as possible.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 111.]

AN ACT authorizing joint entry by pre-emption settlers, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That when settlements have been made upon agricultural public lands of the United States, prior to the survey thereof, and it has been or shall be ascertained, after the public surveys have been extended over such lands that two or more settlers have improvements upon the same legal subdivision, it shall be lawful for such settlers to make joint entry of their lands at the local land office, or for either of said settlers to enter into contract with his co-settlers to convey to them their portion of said land after a patent is issued to him, and after making said contract, to dispose of his own [illegible] and prove up and pay for said land and proof of joint occupation by him and others, and of such entry and contract with them made, shall be equivalent to proof of sole occupation and pre-emption by the applicant: Provided that in no case shall the amount patented under this act exceed one hundred and sixty acres, nor shall this act apply to any one [illegible] who [illegible] pre-emption entry.

SEC. 2. That this act shall be given [illegible] by rules to be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Approved March 3, 1873.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES of agreement between the Post Office Departments of the United States of America and of the Dominion of Canada, establishing an exchange of Postal Cards between the two countries.

ARTICLE 1.

To the purpose of providing additional facilities of postal communication between the United States and Canada, it is hereby mutually agreed that United States postal cards mailed in any post office in the United States and addressed to Canada, and Canadian postal cards mailed in any post-office in Canada and addressed to the United States, when prepaid an additional postage of one cent, by affixing thereto an ordinary one cent postage stamp of the country of origin in addition to the stamp printed in impression on the card, shall be regularly forwarded and delivered in the country of destination free of charge. Postal cards not so prepaid will not be forwarded to the countries between the two countries.

ARTICLE 2.

The regulations and instructions governing the use and treatment of postal cards in the domestic mails of the United States and of Canada, respectively, shall apply equally to the postal cards mailed in either country and addressed to the other country.

ARTICLE 3.

Each country will retain to its own use the postage collected on postal cards [illegible] forwarded to the other country.

ARTICLE 4.

The present articles shall be considered additional to those agreed upon between the two offices on the 25th of March A. D. 1851, and on the 25th and 28th of August, 1851, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of July, A. D. 1873.

In witness whereof the Postmaster General of the United States of America and the Postmaster General of the Dominion of Canada, have hereto set their hands and affixed their seals, at the dates opposite to each respectively.

CONVENTION between the United States of America and Denmark. Naturalization. Concluded July 20, 1872, ratified January 22, 1873, exchanged March 14, 1873, proclaimed April 15, 1873.

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas a convention between the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark, relative to the naturalization of citizens and subjects of the two countries, was concluded and signed at Copenhagen by their respective plenipotentiaries on the twentieth day of July, 1872, the original of which convention, being in the English and Danish languages, is word for word as follows:

The United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark being desirous to regulate the citizenship of the citizens of the United States of America who have emigrated, or who may emigrate, from the United States of America to the Kingdom of Denmark, and of Danish subjects who have emigrated, or who may emigrate, from the Kingdom of Denmark to the United States of America, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose, and have named as their plenipotentiaries, that is to say, the President of the United States of America, Michael J. Cramer, minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and His Majesty the King of Denmark: Otto Ditley Baron Rosenorn-Lehn, commander of Danebrog and Danebrogsmand, chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, &c., &c., &c.,

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles, to wit:

ARTICLE 1.

Citizens of the United States of America who have become, or shall become, and are, naturalized, according to law, within the Kingdom of Denmark as Danish subjects, shall be held by the United States of America to be in all respects and for all purposes Danish subjects, and shall be treated as such by the United States of America.

In like manner, Danish subjects who have become or shall become, and are, naturalized, according to law, within the United States of America as citizens thereof, shall be held by the Kingdom of Denmark to be in all respects and for all purposes as citizens of the United States of America, and shall be treated as such by the Kingdom of Denmark.

ARTICLE 2.

If any such citizen of the United States, as aforesaid, naturalized within the Kingdom of Denmark as a Danish subject, should renew his residence in the United States, the United States Government may, on his application, and on such conditions as that Government may see fit to impose, re-admit him to the character and privileges of a citizen of the United States, and the Danish government shall not, in that case, claim him as a Danish subject on account of his former naturalization.

In like manner, if any such Danish subject, as aforesaid, naturalized within the United States as a citizen thereof, should renew his residence within the Kingdom of Denmark, His Majesty's Government may, on his application, and on such conditions as that Government may think fit to impose, readmit him to the character and privileges of a Danish subject, and the United States Government shall not, in that case, claim him as a citizen of the United States on account of his former naturalization.

ARTICLE 3

If however, a citizen of the United States naturalized in Denmark shall renew his residence in the former country without the intent to return to that in which he was naturalized, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization.

In like manner, if a Dane, naturalized in the United States shall renew his residence in Denmark without the intent to return to the former country he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization.

The intent not to return may be held to exist when a person naturalized in the one country shall reside more than two years in the other country.

ARTICLE 4

The present convention shall go into effect immediately on or after the exchange of the ratifications and shall continue in force for ten years. If neither party shall have given to the other six months' previous notice of its intention then to terminate the same, it shall further remain in force until the end of twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of such intention.

ARTICLE 5

The present convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, and by His Majesty the King of Denmark, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Copenhagen as soon as may be, within eight months from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the same and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at Copenhagen the twentieth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy two.

MICHAEL J. CRAMER
[SEAL.] O. D. ROSENORN-LEHN.

And whereas the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts and the respective ratifications were exchanged at Copenhagen on the 14th day of March 1873 by Michael J. Cramer, minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and Otto Ditley Rosenorn-Lehn, Commander of Danebrog and Danebrogsmand, chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, &c., &c., on the part of their respective governments.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this fifteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-seventh.

U. S. GRANT.
